

The World Constitutes Drawing and Print Media Students VCA Whole Gallery

The World Constitutes is an exhibition by second and third year Drawing and Printmedia students at the Victorian College of the Arts.

Students are being asked to utilise the gallery space and the duration of the exhibition to construct a large-scale boat. Students will work collaboratively to address what constitutes a world without ground and the absence of an end point.

George Paton Gallery Exhibition Archive
12: 5-14 October

2016

The World Constitutes
Drawing and Print Media Students VCA
Whole Gallery

George Paton Gallery Exhibition Archive
12: 5-14 October

2016