

Presence

Jean Baulch

Entrance Gallery

We are present in our homes, we fill its spaces and exist within it, leaving traces of ourselves as we go. Trinkets of our lives seep behind the cushions of the couch, our footsteps reveal how we interact with it's structure: through observation and collection the perception of body and home as separate entities begins to dissolve.

George Paton Gallery Exhibition Archive 2018

2a: 14—23 March