

An Outside Perspective Melody Spangaro

An Outside Perspective brings the external natural world into George Paton Gallery. A series of drawings represent the often overlooked parts of nature - its messy roots and prickly shrubs. It aims to highlight the beauty present in the ordinary and encourage visitors to momentarily look up from their screens and connect with their natural surroundings.

George Paton Gallery Exhibition Archive 2017
3: 22 March—31 March