

VIDEO AND PHOTOGRAPH

Untitled

Fiona Shewan

This work comprises of a photographic still and a companion video letter. The video, addressed to an anonymous recipient, deconstructs the photographic still which comes to signify an object that unifies. The work ruminates on the nature of time in relation to the photographic medium while grappling with experiences of loss.

Content Warning: This artwork contains references to suicide.