

Wittgenstein's Discotheque

By Matthew Shannon and Nicholas Kelly.

25 July / Friday 4 August 2006

Wittgenstein's Discotheque invites you into a philosophical carnival, a space between form and meaning. It attempts to conflate the distance between an installation and a situation in an elusive, sensory altering zone. George Paton Gallery, second floor, Union House.

Opening night

Wednesday 26 July, 5 / 7pm